I would like to design a new school campus for TPOMPS. The school will look like the picture above.

There are seven floors. The ground floor will have a running path, a farm for the animals and an area for planting. The first floor is a hall. Teachers and students can gather in the hall every morning. The hall can also serve for examinations and music concerts. The second and third floor will be the classrooms. The fourth floor is the library and the computer rooms. The fifth floor is for multifunctions. For example, playing football and dancing. The sixth floor is a game floor. There is a wave pool, a TV room and a cart racing court too. Finally, there is a swimming pool on the roof. I hope everyone will like my idea of the new campus.

I thought he would give me some food so I was happy to follow him.

When we arrived, he brought me to his kitchen and put me on a chopping board. Oh my god! He wanted to kill me! When he picked up the knife Ring! Ring! Ring! I opened my eyes and looked around, I was in my bedroom. Luckily, it was just a dream!

One day I woke up and I was in space. I looked around and discovered that everyone became an alien! I looked into the mirror and shouted, "Oh no! I've become an alien too!"

I quickly got out of where I was and rushed to find another alien, hoping it could help me build a rocket for returning to Earth. When we finished building the rocket, I quickly jumped onto the rocket and flew it to Earth.

When I returned to Earth, I went back home. However, when my mom saw me, she said, "Who are you? Go away, you ugly alien!" Therefore, I travelled back to space and lived there forever with my alien friends.

Santa overslept in December. When he woke up, it was already February! He travelled to Hong Kong with his reindeer, Rudolph and found out it was Chinese New Year!

Santa thought about where he could go. "We can go to Ocean Park", Rudolph suggested. "Good idea!" said Santa. "We can prepare the presents for the next year!"

An hour later, they arrived at the Ocean Park gift shop. Santa asked the shopkeeper, "How much are all those toys?" "Ten thousand dollars", answered the shopkeeper. "Ten thousand dollars? It's too expensive!" Santa was sad because he didn't have enough money to buy these presents. He only had one hundred dollars. Santa asked to help. "Okay, if you work here as a shopkeeper, you can gain some money. Your problem can be solved." Santa said "oh it's a really good idea!" Santa felt happy. He tied up his moustache and changed into a short sleeve T-shirt and got ready to work.

One month later, Santa had enough money to purchase toys for the next Christmas. Santa was happy, so was the shopkeeper.

P.4 Fun and Games !!!

Title: My Favourite Game
4A Lee Zuri

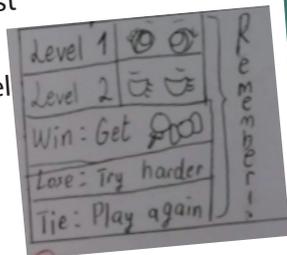

My favourite game was made up by myself when I was six, it was called "Drawing Battle". All you need is two players or more, drawing equipment and a judge (or maybe an elderly or extra player).

Now it's time to explain the rules. Rule number one: Do not use a ruler because drawing with a ruler is NOT on my "Best ways to draw" list. If you used it, you're out! Rule number 2: NEVER look at other players' drawings. That is cheating! If you do, you're out! Rule number three: Do not copy the pictures from books, the internet or cartoons. If you do, that means you have NO creativity and so you're out of the battle!

Let me tell you some more. The judge will tell the players a topic and the drawing must be given to the judge after ten minutes. There are also two levels in this battle. Level 1: Open your eyes to draw (easy). Level 2: Close your eyes to draw in ten minutes (Hard). If it is a tie, play again. If you win, you'll get a candy; if you lose, try harder!

Title: The Fun Bus
4A Lau Yat Wang

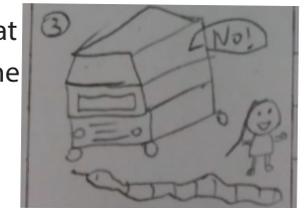

Mrs. Bigelow became the bus driver of the Fun Bus. She took Mr. Bigelow with her and went on a trip around the world. Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow were excited because they could meet all the people in the world.

First, Mrs. Bigelow drove the bus to China. She sang while she went there. Soon, the bus stopped at the first station. A man with three little monsters got on the bus. Mr. Bigelow asked, "why do the monsters get on my bus? I won't have a fuss. Take these monsters out of my bus!"

After a while, Mrs. Bigelow stopped at the next station in Japan. A boy with some delicious candies got on the bus. "No candies or drinks on my bus. Take these away!" screamed Mr. Bigelow.

Ten hours later, Mrs. Bigelow saw a bridge and stopped. A girl with a snake got on my bus! "Snake!" shouted Mr. Bigelow. "No snake on my bus! Take that out of my bus!" Finally, they had travelled around the world. Mrs. Bigelow was jolly as she finished travelling around the world, but Mr. Bigelow was angry as the people always made a fuss.

Mrs. Bigelow became the bus driver of the Fun Bus. She took Mr. Bigelow with her and went on a trip around the world. "I'm excited to meet all the people!" exclaimed Mrs. Bigelow. "I won't, I won't, I won't have a fuss!" said Mr. Bigelow. "Calm down," said Mrs. Bigelow "I think the people won't be happy if they saw you angry. There are a lot of passengers here. Let's travel around the world."

So, they did. But things didn't go as they planned.

"Watch out!" shouted Mr. Bigelow as the Fun Bus was getting closer and closer to a tornado! His advice went unheeded. They had crashed into the storm! It blew the bus to an unknown place. What they could see was a sign. It wrote "Bus Stop". The storm had blown the bus to a bus stop! A girl took a dog onboard. Mr. Bigelow was indignant and threw the dog away! The girl started to cry. But surprisingly, the dog helped the girl dry her tears! Next, an old lady got on the bus. She had a cat with her. Mr. Bigelow was irritated and was just going to throw the cat out when he heard a loud sound. "Crash!" The lady slipped! He wanted to help the lady when he saw something unbelievable: The cat helped her to get onboard! All the passengers couldn't believe their eyes!

Then, a boy got onboard at the third stop. He was weeping. In his hands was a cage with a parrot inside. This time Mr. Bigelow didn't throw the parrot away. The parrot told a hilarious joke and it made the boy laugh. Mr. Bigelow thought, "Animals aren't so bad after all. Why was I so cruel to them?"

Suddenly, Mr. Bigelow found out they couldn't go back home! He was panicking when a group of birds flew by. "Follow us! We'll bring you back home." They shouted. An hour later, he found out the Fun Bus had arrived at their home town. Mr. Bigelow finally realized that animals were useful and vowed not to hurt animals again.

Title: The Fun Bus
4B Siu Nok Yiu

I am Mrs. Bigelow. Travelling around the world with my family is my dream.

One day, a fairy gave me a Fun Bus. I invited my husband, Mr. Bigelow to have this "around the world" tour with me.

The Fun Bus travelled at the speed of light. It flew through the fluffy clouds. It stopped suddenly. We then looked outside and found the bus suspended in the air, just above the Great Wall of China. It's mighty in nature. It's a wonderful experience to see the panoramic view of the architectural feat at high points.

The bus flew again. It went through day and night in a minute and stopped again. I was shocked to see a giant woman stare at me. Oh! It's the statue of Liberty! It's the icon of freedom and of the United States. She held a torch above her head with her hand. I hit her hand, saying "Give me five!" I wished to bring freedom to everyone.

The Fun Bus dived into the sea. It became a submarine. I saw thousands of turtles, colourful fishes, starfish, dolphins and sharks. The water was crystal clear. I believed it's the Great Barrier Reef in Australia. I wanted to swim with all these wonderful creatures.

I'm glad to have this amazing tour with my beloved one. I wish to go on another adventure soon.

After Mrs. Bigelow became the bus driver of the Fun Bus, she went on a trip with Mr. Bigelow. She exclaimed, "I can't wait to meet everyone!" Mr. Bigelow said, "I won't, I won't have a fuss!" But Mrs. Bigelow didn't listen to him. She pulled him into the bus and drove away.

Their first stop was Tropical Rainforest. When they arrived, their bus got stuck in the mud. Mr. Bigelow said, "I won't, I won't, I won't have a fuss!" Suddenly, a gorilla and an elephant saw them and they helped them pull their bus out. In the rainforest, there were lots of trees, wild animals and flowers. They saw the wild animals and watched them move. They also took a lot of photos.

Their second stop was a desert. They saw lots of plants and camels. They also took lots of photos and watched some insects. They were excited. Their third stop was the North Pole. In the North Pole, it was very cold. Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow bought a sweater there. They had so much fun in the snow. They had a snow fight, built snowmen and watched the penguin sliding on the ice.

At last, it was time to leave. Mr. Bigelow said, "I loved this trip very much! Can we go again?" Mrs. Bigelow said, "Yes, sure!" They went home in the evening. They were tired but very happy. It was because they had a wonderful trip!

Title: The Fun Bus

Yesterday was Mr. Bigelow's birthday. Mrs. Bigelow wanted to give him a big surprise so she drove her family to go on a trip around the world. Mrs. Bigelow became the bus driver of the Fun Bus. The Fun Bus could fly in the sky, ride very fast on the road and swim in the sea, so the Bigelows could travel to Germany and the United Kingdom.

On the first day, they went to Germany. They arrived at Neuschwanstein Castle at eleven o'clock. They took a lot of photos in the huge and beautiful castle. The Neuschwanstein Castle was similar to Disneyland Park's castle, but this castle didn't have cartoon characters like Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse. This castle had three hundred and sixty rooms inside and it was built in the mountains. They bought some souvenirs too. They enjoyed the Schweinshaxe and German Beer. Then they left.

On the second day, they travelled to the United Kingdom. They went to the Tower Bridge at ten o'clock in the morning. They felt hungry so they had lunch in a restaurant in London. They ate steak and Kidney Pie. The pie tasted good and Mr. Bigelow ate a lot. Later, Mrs. Bigelow drove her Super Fun Bus to London Eye. They took many photos of the beautiful "Blue Eye". They saw some clowns there. The clowns did a lot of funny magic tricks and danced crazily. They made the Bigelows laugh.

On the last day, they visited Hyde Park. There were a lot of trees and flowers. Suddenly, a boy climbed up one of the trees, but he couldn't get down. Mr. Bigelow was very good at climbing trees, so he climbed up that tree and helped the boy get down. The boy was very thankful to Mr. Bigelow so he gave him a Chicken A La King. Mr. Bigelow felt glad because he helped the boy.

It was a fantastic trip for the Bigelows. They met a lot of people and tasted a lot of different food and had so much fun on the trip.

My favourite game is Mario Kart 8, and I always win my big brother and dad and of course my best family member - my helper, but one day I lost, and I was happy for my helper.

That day was 31st January when I lost at 5pm. Me and my helper decided to play together after I finished school. After school when I did all my housework we played Mario Kart 8 very crazily because we played Mario Kart 8 until my mom and dad came home (well, of course she did all her chores when we played). On the 20th game, I lost because she threw a red shell at my cart but I did get 2nd. That was a very funny moment when we both started laughing for no reason, then we just smiled at each other.

Then my brother and dad asked if I won or lost. I said "I lost because she had a red shell but I did get 2nd place and I'm happy!". I learnt that you won't be 1st all the time.

It was my nine-year-old birthday yesterday and my father gave me a big and colorful present. It was called "Poo, Donut and ice-cream SPLAT." It was such a weird game but I didn't mind. I curiously asked my father, "Is there real poop, ice-cream and donuts inside?", "You'll see" he said, as he opened the box.

"Wow! What a surprising game!" I said, and that game became my favourite game. You have to play a two minute card game. There will be five different cards and three different colours, red, blue and yellow and three different objects, the poop, the ice-cream and some donuts. At least there must be three people to play. One person has to give a card out, and each card will have a missing object.

The fastest person who gets the missing object will be the winner for each level and could get the card and the one who gets most cards will win. Oh! I forgot, the one who wins gets the missing object.

I hope you'll like it, bye!

One morning, I was awakened by an amazing talking parrot. 'Hi, I'm Mart. I know where a treasure is buried. Come on, let's go!' it squawked. I was very confused.

Mart came to a fish bowl, and said 'Take me to Treasure Land!' Suddenly, there was a cool blue portal. Mart jumped in and pulled me in the portal. 'Welcome to Treasure Land! There are memorials, fairies and mostly pirates.' There are lots of gold and gems. The man who has a red coat is Captain John! He's very evil!' Mart said.

Mart and I were going to the place where the treasure is. We climbed along the trees, swam through the river and defeated the giant crocodiles.

I saw a shiny little spot in the Pirate Cave. 'It must be the treasure!' I said excitedly. We asked the fairies for help from the fairy dust. Then we flew to the cave.

Mart and I reached to the Pirate Cave. The greedy Captain John was there already, he was putting one gold, two gold.....in the pocket. Unluckily, Captain John saw us. Since Mart was trying to stop him, I took a silver sword and shouted "OFF With His Head!" we fought for a long time. Finally, we defeated him with the magical silver sword. The sword had fire and water. We were very happy that we won.

We took a look at the treasure chest, there were two magical bracelets inside. It can help us fly!

At last, Mart said, 'Thank you for helping me find the treasure. Hope I can see you next time.' Then Mart sent me back home.

'Ring! Ring!' the clock rang. 'Oh! It's a dream.' I said, "a wonderful dream."
"Goodbye, The Talking Parrot, Mart!"

Going overseas for a trip is interesting. Here is my travel advice for visiting Beijing.

Beijing is the capital of China and one of its ancient capitals, you can visit different tourist attractions whenever you want. This city is also a major transportation hub and one of the world's most magnificent cities.

The temperature in Beijing is around -9 to 7 degrees in winter, it is usually cooler than Hong Kong, it is important to bring warm clothes such as wooden hat, gloves and coat. Otherwise, you may get a cold. You also need to exchange some Chinese Yuan for buying things, dining or playing. Instead of cash, Alipay is another good way for paying.

Generally speaking, the food there is quite oily. The most famous local food in Beijing is Roasted Duck, it is absolutely fatter and tastier than Hong Kong's. I recommend trying the fried insects too, they taste like potato chips!

I suggest going to Beijing in winter, it is the best time to see snow during these months. This is very special for us as it never snows in Hong Kong. Icy rivers are everywhere and you may even get to enjoy the activities that are related. You will have great fun there.

You should go to the forbidden city, it is the biggest palace building in the world, and remember to bring your documents to buy the admission ticket. For your safety, you should also print a copy of your documents to prove your identity when you lose it.

I hope you will take my travel advice and have an enjoyable trip in Beijing!

I want to introduce Australia. It is a wonderful country. You must go there for a trip!

In Australia, the hottest time of the year is December and January. The highest temperature is 35 degrees. The coldest day is 6 degrees and it is in July.

The local people usually eat steak. It is very tasty. The people from other countries like to eat steak too!

I recommend that you can see some adorable animals such as koalas and kangaroos. Koalas have mini eyes, huge nose and ears. You must go to the theme park. You can go on the rides and take some photos with the cartoon characters. It is fun!

The best time to visit is in October, when the weather is warm. It is also the time when the colorful flowers are blooming.

If you go there, you will need to bring a cap and sunglasses when it is January and you will need to wear a sweater and a scarf. You must bring some snacks too!

I was sleeping peacefully in my straw bed, suddenly, a sound woke me up. "Wake up! Wake up!" I was very tired and I shouted. "Oh shut up!" "I know where a treasure is buried," the second squawked. I was surprised, my family were poor, so I woke up and asked, "I've already waken up. Uh...can you tell me the treasure is now? My family is very poor." I was a bit surprised to see a brightly-coloured parrot!

"OK! OK!" it answered. I told my parents a lie and went to find the treasure. "Follow me!" Follow me! The parrot squawked. It took me to a pirate ship, I was scared. "Parrot...are you sure I need to go on this ship?" the parrot nodded his head and said "Me Justin!"

I become a pirate for a month and our captain told us to rest on a little island. I was very happy, I ate fresh fruit and played with sand. I went to sleep after I played. When I woke up, everyone is gone, my mates, captain, the ship....I was scared and sad so I cried and yelled "Justin? Where are you? Justin!" Then I cried myself to sleep...

I woke up next morning to find a little parrot sleeping next to me. "Justin?" I said feebly. The parrot woke up and said "Vana!" it flapped its wings and flew above my head. I laughed. "Come!" It squawked. I followed him down a dark cave and found a big treasure chest. "Wow!" I was amazed.

I took the treasure chest home and become rich! My parents were surprised, suddenly, a white bright light shined on Justin, with a "Poof!" and he became a handsome boy, and he said, "Vana! I'm back to normal!" I was shocked and I asked. "Who are you? Aren't you the prince who's missing? Can someone tell me what's going on?" Justin said. "A wizard turned me into a parrot, only a girl who goes with me on a treasure hunt could save me, and that's you!"

Justin took me and my family to his castle and made me his wife and we lived happily ever after, the end.

Title: Travel Advice of London
5B Lam Bethany Grace

England is a country that is very special to the people of Hong Kong. Many people have emigrated there and even more have visited this extraordinary country. The capital of England is London.

London is usually very cloudy and the temperature in winter is around 0-10 degree while in summer around 20-30 degree. In summer time, daytime is very long. So it is great for going out.

In order to get to London, you can go from the airport station by underground, you will need almost minutes. But if you go by car, you will need almost one and a half hour to get there.

When you are in London, you should probably, by an Oyster card. It is the same idea as our Octopus card in Hong Kong. If you are just visiting one or two days, you can buy a Day pass which you can use it to get on the bus or tube.

You can go to some famous places like the Tower Bridge, Big Ben, the Westminster Abbey, the British Museum and the Buckingham Palace, etc.

You can go to the Tower Bridge by the underground, car or the other traffic. When some of the big ships need to go under the bridge and if the time is right, then you will see the magic of a bridge lift beneath your feet. So made sure you check the time table almost the bridge lift!

You can go visit the Big Ben. The name Big Ben is often used to describe the tower and the bell but the name was first given to the great bell. It is very enjoyable to hear the bell stuck every hour. So I would recommend you to go here too.

There are just some of my suggestions and you can go to some different places too because it still have a lot of nice places to go too.

It was a stunning morning.

When I woke up, I found there was a talking parrot was standing in front of me. It squawked "I know where a treasure is buried!" "Silly parrot, go away! I yelled. "Treasure! A lots of jewel and gold! Don't you want?" It shouted.

"Mm.....very arrest...OK! I'll go with you, find the treasure!"

I packed my belongings and got ready for treasure hunt.

Followed the parrot, we arrived at a small and quiet island.

The parrot pointed at a big stone and yelled excitedly, "There's the treasure, it's under the stone!" I pushed away the stone and I saw a box, it's treasure.

Then I found it was a futile effort because there was no treasure inside the box but a paper it wrote: "Whoever opens this box is a stupid and ugly guy, Ha! Ha!"

I was very angry but I was looking forward to having a roast parrot for lunch. "Not my fault! Not my fault!" "The treasure was here when I went here last night!" parrot said.

"Oh! Do you know I have already taken away the treasure? Ha! Ha!" Captain Hook laughed arrogantly. "You..." I was full ready to punch him to Mars."

I took out a big boat punch him lots of guns, grenade and ordnance. Then we started a big war on the sea with the pirates. We shot them and they did so...

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!" I laughed four artillery shells and the pirate's ship was bombed out! We got the victory!

The parrot called the Space Criminal police to catch Hook to the police airship. He yelled, "I'll be back! You! I'll punish you every very pitful next time!"

The treasure was sent to the Space treasure and the pirates were sent to Space prison, "Will you eat me as your lunch?" asked the parrot frightenedly.

"Maybe not..." I thought.

"Yeah! I tell you, I know where another treasure was buried!" It whispered to me.

"No! I won't trust you again!" I said.

One morning, it was a sunny day. "Knock Knock" a parrot squawked. I was awakened by the parrot. "I know where a treasure is buried, I know where a treasure is buried!" the parrot said. Then, I woke up immediately. "Are you talking?" "Yes, I can talk, the treasure is waiting for you. Would you like to join me?" "Yes, let's go. We will go to Tibet for a treasure hunt."

At Tibet, we rented a car and brought a driver. His name was Ngapoi. It took two hours for driving to the treasure site. "Ngapoi, you can start driving now!" Two hours later, we saw a mountain. There was a cave in the mountain. The cave was an ancient tomb for a King. Inside the cave, we thought that there must be a lot of hidden and attacking machine. "We must be extremely careful," I told the parrot and Ngapoi. We started to step into the cave. In the cave, a series of weird and terrible incidents happened on us. For example we heard some ghost screaming noise, an empty coffin dropped in front of us, a scary skeleton walked past us. On the half way, some human-like statues shot spears towards us. The spears were poisonous. We could not stop running and running as fast as we could and hoped to get away from this dangerous place quickly. When we were safe, we discovered that the human-like statues were not human, they were wooden-made warriors and might be controlled by mysterious power.

After that, we reached the ancient King's tomb. "See, some words on the coffin." Ngapoi said. "All Die Once Opens." We felt frightened but we still decided to open it. "Wow, so wonderful! Treasure, Jewels, Gold Coins, Pearl, Ruby..." Our eyes were sparkling and twinkling. We could not believe what was happening on us. We could be rich, rich, rich... we took all the treasure out from the coffin and started to leave. At this moment, we felt something strange... the cave was shaking heavier and heavier.

It looked like that the cave was going to collapse in a second. We were in great danger. We might be buried here with the treasure and the King. We ran and ran straight ahead with our full energy.

Thanks God. We were safe. We saw the sunlight. We were outside the cave now. What happened to the mountain, the cave and the tomb at our bad? They all disappeared and went under the earth. We saw a large plain land with dust and stones. At last, we went home happily with the treasure. We became billionaire and we donated half of the treasure to the charity to help the poor. Sharing is fantastic.

One morning, I woke up and I saw a talking parrot. It said, "Hello! My name is Finn. I know where a treasure buried." I was surprised! How could a parrot talk and why could it know where a treasure buried? But if the treasure was real and I found it, I would be very rich! So I answered, "Please take me to the treasure! I beg you!"

Then the parrot took me on a boat at a beach. We sailed to the sea. I looked at the clouds and enjoyed the sea breeze. I felt really free.

Suddenly, I saw a lot of dark clouds. It was raining cats and dogs. Our boat was going to sink! We used a bucket to scoop the water out the boat. When I was scooping the water out of the boat, I slipped down. Finn the parrot helped me to get up. I said, "Thanks."

After thirty minutes, the rain stopped. We were glad that we were safe. I saw an island. Finn said "Let's stop the boat here." We went on the island. We found a tent and some food. I said, "There are people on the island." Suddenly, two men came out from the tent. They yelled, "Who are you? What are you doing here?" I said, "This parrot is Finn. It's a talking parrot. It knows where a treasure buried. We set sailed to the sea then we saw this island." One man said, "My name is Ben. The man next to me is Mike. We, know where a treasure buried but we don't have a boat so we can't find it." I said, "We have a boat, you two can join us!" Mike said, "Good! We will pack our things and we will go tomorrow."

The next day, our boat sailed on the sea again. Ben and Mike saw three sharks swimming on the right of the boat. Mike cried and responded quickly, "The sharks will turn us into their lunch!" I yelled, "Everybody quick! Throw some food into the water, they will just eat the food but not us!" We threw a lot of food into sea. This plan worked! We were safe! But now we had no more food!

Finn cried, "We have no more food! How can we survive?" Suddenly, Mike had an idea. He remembered when he packed his bag, he packed some fishing rods. We could go fishing. When Ben was fishing, a big fish hooked up on the rods. Ben pulled the rod hardly. He did it! He hooked up a fish and it is the bucket. When Mike was fishing, he hooked up a fish. He tried to pull the rod, but the fish was too strong that it pulled Mike into the water! I jumped into the water and saved Mike! He said, "Thank you!"

At last, everyone caught a fish, even Finn! We found the treasure on an island. We opened the treasure box, there weren't any money, jewels or gold! There was only a stone tablet! It had some words. It says "Friendship is the most important treasure." Everyone was surprised. We had a lot of adventures and friendship. That was where friendship came from.

Yesterday at my friend's house. I was awakened by a parrot at first I was not scared at all. And he talked right in front of me. I was very scared. He said "I know where a treasure is buried," "Yeah!" I replied.

Then I asked what is the parrot's name. "You can call me Margret" he said. "Let's go!" "But what about my friend" I asked "When we finish overturning, I can take you back to the past and the treasure will be still here, don't worry!" replied Margret.

Margret had a treasure map in his hand. "We need to get dressed first" Margret said. As soon we got dressed, we needed to build a boat across the sea.

So we built a boat, not just any boat, we have built a big boat like the size of three double beds. When we were in the middle of the sea, there was a shark! We just saw it he didn't see us for now and it came for us. "Ahh" I was scared. Margret said "Don't worry, I can do this." I closed my eyes because I didn't want to know what would happen. I can't even believe it Margret actually did it. I asked "How did you do that?" And Margret said "I've just made the shark sleep." "What! How is that possible?" I asked. So Margret told me what happened.

Then, we went across the huge forest. We saw a lot of animals like pandas, insects and more. We thought there would be something that attack us but we were safe.

In the end, we went through a cave that had a lot of spiders that attack us but we killed them. And we also got the treasure! Margret sent me back to the past and the treasure was right next to me.

Taiwan has a lot of places such as Tainan and Kaohsiung, but I like Taipei the best. It is a small drizzle now.

In Taipei, there has a lot of local food, but I want to share the top six local popular foods in Taipei. The most popular food is Xiao Long Bao. The second is beef noodle soup. The third is Braised Pork on Rice. The fourth is Oyster Omelets. The fifth is Gua Bao. It is my mother's favourite. The sixth is Pineapple Cake. It is my favourite.

I recommend going to Taipei 101. Taipei 101 was one of the world's tallest skyscrapers. You can come here and enjoy high-speed elevators. The best time to go Taipei 101 is on thirty-first of December because there are fireworks shows on that day. Ten thousands of people join the New Year countdown evening.

I also suggest them go to Maokong. For more great views, head to Maokong Mountain. The mountain's gondola service starts at the Taipei zoo, the largest zoological collection in Asia. As an important tea growing area, it's also the place to learn the finer points of tea tasting and appreciation. Because higher terrain, Maokong is also very suitable to enjoy the night view. Maokong has cats too. You shouldn't feed the cat and scare the cats.

I think you can go to Taipei zoo. There are a lot of animals such as camels, polar bears and penguin. We shouldn't throw rubbish to the animals. We need to keep quiet and don't affect animals. If you want to go there, you should bring water to drink and food to eat.

The most famous attraction in Nagoya is Fushimi Inari Shrine. The light and heavy stones in the middle of the mountain are also amazing. The most impressive thing about this attraction is the picture of Zhang Ziyi running in the Thousand Birds in the Memoirs of Geisha. One day, I played football with my friends in the park after school as usual. My friend, Tom pushed me to the ground when I was holding the ball. I was very angry at that moment, so I fought with him out of revenge. As a result, he got injured on his forehead and arms. I was scared, so I fled immediately and returned home.

Afterwards, I was watching TV at home. When I switched to a Science channel that was talking about the black hole, something sucked me into it. I could feel myself falling, falling, falling... When I opened my eyes, I found out that I was in an unfamiliar place.

I couldn't see anything because it was so dark. Also, the ground was rocky and uneven. It was extremely chilly and I could hear a lot of screaming sounds all over the place. Suddenly, I saw two people with terrible faces chasing after a guy. They looked like demons. They had two horns on their heads and a lot of eyes - two of the eyes were huge. They had big mouths with two big sharp teeth protruding out. They looked like man-eaters. They were holding fork-shaped weapons with blood stains and very long metal chains. The guy was caught by the demons in front of me and they disappeared in a split second.

I was shocked. I looked into the sky and there was the time and date - 1st January, 2059. At that time, I saw a man walking past me. I stopped him and asked him, 'Where am I, and how can I leave this place?' I was terrified. I asked, 'How can I leave this place?' again. He said, 'You will never leave here until your judgment day comes. You can wait till your judgment day!' His name was Sam.

I asked Sam, 'What will happen on the judgment day?' He said, 'Follow me! You will find the answer.' We went to a place. There were a lot of rooms. Suddenly, someone was yelling. We took a look and saw that the man who had been caught by two demons in front of me was tied on the chair. A demon told the man, 'I will chop your hands off because you are a thief.' At the same time, I found another man tied on the chair in another room too. His tongue was cut by the demon because he was a liar. I went to another room and saw a man who was a man killer, hung by the demon. The demon cut open his chest and took out his heart. Suddenly, two demons came over and caught Sam. He said, 'Goodbye, my friend! I bullied people. It's my turn now!' Then, Sam disappeared.

At that time, I was alone. I sat on the rocky ground and embraced my body with my arms, crying for help. Suddenly, there was a voice saying 'I am the hell keeper. No one can escape from the judgment. Your judgment day will be on 1st January, 2059. Now I will let you go and see you in the hell in 2059. However, I may call you back earlier if you keep on doing nasty things.

Suddenly, I saw a strong light and it sucked me into it. I felt myself falling again. When I opened my arms, I found everything was back to normal. I was sitting on the sofa at home and the TV was on. Now, I realize that I should help people out instead of causing trouble. I shall apologize to Tom for what I did to him at the football pitch this afternoon. I hope I will not return to hell again.

Title: Aquaman Review - It is an amazing movie
6A Hui Yi Nam

Aquaman is one of my favourite movies that I have recently watched. Once when Arthur returned home, he was confronted by Princess Mera, who pleaded him to venture to Atlantis and took his rightful place as its king, preventing Orm from waging a war on the surface.

Mera and royal vizier Vulko found a clue that would lead Arthur to the lost trident of King Atlan, and if Arthur retrieved the weapon, he would wield the power of the seas and be able to take the throne from Orm. Meanwhile, Orm was trying to unite the remaining underwater kingdoms with the help of Nereus, in order to start a war with the surface dwellers. With so many enemies working against him, it was unclear if Arthur could find Atlan's trident in time to prevent a war.

The movie appeals to me because the story is interesting and the movie is featured with many fascinating and exciting scenes. The outperformance of CG1 visual effect can deliver striking visuals. The pace of the story development is so compact that it draws the viewer's attention consistently.

In the movie, Mera is my most favourite character because she is pretty, righteous and brave. She dares to fight against the power for justice. In the aspect of love, she is so decisive for pursuing her man.

I highly recommend you to watch this movie as it is the best movie I have watched recently. The exciting story and fascinating scenes will draw all your attention throughout the movie and you will enjoy it.

I opened my eyes with fear. I saw a Doraemon robot staring at me and said, 'Welcome to the future, Serena! Just watch this video and you'll know about what happened during the last forty years.' I was wondering how he knew my name. He laughed, 'It is because I have a talisman, a mind reading machine. I was created by Tujimoto Hiroshi's grandson. Ha Ha!' I watched the video and it was about people in Hong Kong who fought with each other. Fortunately, some developed a lot of robots to manage people. People became more orderly and didn't become evil.

Doraemon wanted to take me to Hong Kong Ocean Park. He said, 'Let's take a flying taxi there!' I nodded and a small car flew to me. A silver robot came out. Doraemon asked that robot to take us to Ocean Park. Some chairs moved inside the car. I was afraid and Doraemon said, 'Don't worry. The chairs just want you to sit.' We sat on the chairs and I looked out of the window. All the people wore glasses but no one used mobile phones. I was confused. There were many robots on the ground and they were serving people. Doraemon said, 'Half of the people died because of fights so they invented some robots to help them.'

We finally went to Ocean Park. I thought Doraemon would pay for the fare but he disappeared. I ran away quickly but the robot shouted, 'Hey! You need to pay!' The robot chased me but I escaped.

When I stopped, I found that I was in Ocean Park's Panda Villa, I asked a girl how to go to the Customer Service Centre but I bumped into her. She yelled, 'I am playing Identity V with my smart glasses but you made me lose! Go away!' Then a boy came up to me and said, 'I think you look lost and tired. Let me help you go to the restaurant. I thanked him and I looked at the menu. There were only soup and vegetables for sale there. Suddenly, Doraemon appeared and said, 'Sorry that I left you alone, I lost my smart glasses and couldn't pay for the entrance fee. I said, 'It's OK. But don't do that again! Anyway, why is there no meat for sale?' Doraemon answered, 'It is because we want to protect the earth! Too many animals were being hunted!'

Suddenly, two huge robots came in and they carried guns. They yelled, 'Ladies and gentlemen, don't be afraid! We just want to destroy the earth!' People in Ocean Park screamed and ran away. Doraemon took out his cannon and said, 'I'm not afraid of you!' Doraemon gave me one air cannon and we shot the huge robot. They fell down and Doraemon called the police. People in Ocean Park thanked us.

After leaving Ocean Park, Doraemon said, 'It's time to go home. Thank you for your help. Bye!' A black hole appeared and I was sucked into it. I found myself sitting on the sofa. I think this was the most thrilling journey that I have ever had!

One day, I was watching TV at home. When I switched to Science channel, it was talking about black holes. Something sucked me into it. I could feel myself falling, falling.. When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I looked into the sky and there was the date - 1st January, 2059.

'Happy New Year!' People were shouting everywhere. It was noisy and there were bright and colourful fireworks.

I was scared. I was not home anymore. The TV was gone and I was old. 'Oh no! I'm 52 years old!'

So I started to run, not knowing where to go. I bumped into Mary, my best friend. She was surprised and asked, 'Who are you? What do you want?' I answered, 'It's me Celeste, your best friend.' Mary was happy to see me, 'You have been missing for 40 years.' We hugged and cried.

Mary took me to her futuristic home. The dog and the maid were robots. There was a food machine that prepared a large dinner with fried chicken, baked potatoes, a bowl of fresh salad and some meat. There were drinks and desserts too.

After the fabulous meal, we went to watch TV in a spacious room with an amazing and gigantic 6D TV. Mary was flipping channels and I was watching a Science channel again with a black hole. We both screamed and Mary and I shouted for help.

We looked at the date - 1st January 2019.

One day, I was reading a book which was about the aliens at home. When I saw the eyes of the aliens, they turned green and hurt my eyes. I couldn't control my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I looked into the clock and there was the date – 1st January, 2059.

I was surprised and thought that I was just dreaming. However, I stroked my face badly and I knew it was real!

It was impossible! I could travel through time! I ran to the main street and waited for a taxi. I said to the driver, 'Please go to the Tai Po Old Market Public School!'

He drove me there and I gave some money to him. His face was as joyful as having a treasure. I ignored him and looked up to my school. It became a skyscraper. It was tall like a mountain and the shape was as beautiful as a hotel!

I was a bit hungry so I wanted to go home. I walked along the old path to my home. I rang the doorbell and saw a woman, and she said, 'Child, who are you looking for?' I replied, 'I want to find Yau Wing Yi.'

She said, 'That is me!' I explained to her why I knew her name and she understood. She gave a book to me and taught me, 'Look at the alien eyes. Then you can go back!'

I tried and my body started to freeze. I opened my eyes and found that I had gone to the year 3000! How can I get back to 2019?.....

'Oh my god! It is very beautiful!' I shouted excitedly. In that moment, I was flying in the sky by standing on a paper plane. I smiled very happily at the boy who was sitting near me. He was Tom.

One day, I was watching TV at home. When I watched a Science channel that was talking about a black hole, something sucked me into the TV. I could feel myself falling... When I opened my eyes, I found that there was a boy who was carrying me on his back. I was afraid that he was a bad guy, but I was very tired so I fell asleep.

When I got up, I screamed loudly. There was a boy sleeping near me! I pushed him off the bed immediately. 'Hey! What are you doing? I saw you sleeping in the forest so I brought you home. By the way, I'm Tom,' the boy said.

Then, we went out and looked for my home. I looked up to the sky. Many people were flying in the sky! And there was the date - 1st January, 2059. I had travelled to the future! Tom was very surprised about it too.

After that, Tom took me everywhere. It was different from the past. He flew in the sky with me! I didn't want to go back home anymore. It was very beautiful and relaxing. It was like heaven! I wanted to stay here. But Tom said they had invented a machine which could travel to the past, but not the future. I'll go back home next week.

One day, I was watching TV at home. When I switched to a Science channel, it sucked me into it. I could feel myself falling, falling, falling... When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I looked into the sky and there was the date - 1st January, 2059.

Oh! Why did I travel to the future? 2059? I think the big hole sucked me to the future, but I didn't want to travel to the future. A boy was next to me and his name tag said he was called Ivan. He said, 'Wowwww!' I didn't understand what he said so I ran away to the river. There were a lot of children who were playing games, e.g. PuG, basketball games.....Oh, I hated playing these games. I ran to the police office. There were many policemen but they were all sleeping on beds. Why? I couldn't believe it! I then went to the street, but I saw many people dancing. What? People dancing in the street? Oh! They played the games on the streets.

Oh! I wanted to go back to 2019 in Hong Kong. Suddenly, a loud noise came from the sky. I ran away because I felt scared. I shouted loudly but no one helped me. I was angry. I thought if I had a knife, I would kill everybody.

When I wanted to kill everybody, one person was sitting next to me and said, 'Don't worry, I know a way for you to go home! First we found a big hole, then we watched a film!' Oh! Yes! I found a Science channel in the sky. There was a strange pattern... This is 2019! I came back to Hong Kong! Hurray! I will try not to watch the Science channel in the future. But what about the man? I will forget about him!

My favourite film is Aquaman. This film is about a man living in a lighthouse. He saw a girl who was unconscious in the sea. Then he saved her. After that they lived together and a baby was born. But the sea's king didn't let the girl stay with the man. So he fought with him. In the end, he lost so the girl went to the sea.

When the baby grew, he fought with the King. First, he lost and his weapon broke! Then he went to fight with a monster with no weapon. In the end, he won against the monster and got a weapon. The second time, he used his coach's move and won against the King.

When I finished watching all the film, I thought this film was very exciting because it has a lot of action scenes! I will recommend it to all of my friends because this film is so exciting and amazing.

'Ding, Ding, Ding' a robot said, 'Ding, Ding, Ding, time is up. Back to your age.' Something sucked me into it again.

I went back to my home and slept. I forgot what I saw in the future. It was a dream.

One day, I was watching TV at home. It was talking about a black hole. Suddenly, I fell into a hole for a minute. When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I looked into the sky and all the buildings there were extremely high. No one used mobile phones anymore. They used their watches for calling people, playing games and for searching things. All the cars were flying in the air. I asked some people what date it was. They said it was 1st January 2059. Then, I asked them how could I go back to 2019. They said I can go back to 2019 by a car called a Time Taxi. Therefore, I got into a taxi and told the driver to drive me back to 2019. I was woken up by an alarm clock. Finally, I realised I had a dream!

When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I looked into the sky and there was the date - 1st January 2059. I have just travelled to the future. It was very amazing.

Firstly, I went to a restaurant because I was really hungry. In the restaurant, the waiters gave me some strange looks because I came from the past. I quickly left that place.

Then, I went back to my home. I heard my dad's voice and I went to watch TV. Suddenly, my mum talked loudly to me, 'Hurry up, it's time for school!' I woke up immediately and found that I just had a dream.

One day, I was watching TV at home. I saw a programme. It was talking about a black hole. Suddenly, something sucked me into it. I could feel myself falling, falling, falling...

Very soon, I was in pain because I fell on the grass. When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a place full of unexpected scenes. I didn't know what the date was so I asked some people. They said, 'Today is 1st January, 2059. I was so surprised and afraid. I couldn't find my family. Luckily, an old lady brought me to her home and asked me to stay in her house. I felt so happy.'

In this US trip, my most unforgettable moment was visiting the host family's nanny's house. Nanny has a very big house near the farm. I could see a donkey in the farm. We played on a streamlet behind the house. We walked under a bridge! It was dark there and made me feel like having an adventure. We also had an exciting water balloon fight. It was fun! All of us got wet from the head to the toe.

During the trip, I learnt to take care of myself and others. For example, I packed the luggage myself. I also cleaned up the house and took care of the little kids. I still remember I tried to carry my little host sister from the bedroom upstairs to the ground floor. She was so heavy that I could barely lift her up. It was an interesting experience.

I wish that I could go to the US and visit them again!

I learnt a lot of things from this cultural exchange trip to USA. The host family in the USA was very kind and they took good care of me. The little sister Miziya from the host family was a bit naughty because she would cry when she did not get the things that she wanted. She often ran around in the supermarket and we could not find her. She would scare us to death. I learnt that the USA culture is different from Hong Kong. They didn't need to wear uniform in the school and didn't need to wear a pony tail when going to school. They did not have much homeworks and they enjoyed their family activities very much. I still keep in contact with the host family and I hope to see them again in the future.

When I studied with the students of Red Oak, I could feel that those student love their school life very much. They often told jokes and played with each other. The teachers were full of humour too. Student had fun every day and they liked going to school as there was no pressure at all. Their school life was very different from ours.

Talking about my host family, their life style was very relaxing. They has smiley faces all times. They knew how to enjoy their life. For example, they went hiking and often checked out horses at the horse racing course. They had family gathering at home where they practiced archery and had BBQ with friends. On the other hand, the way of living in Hong Kong is totally different. We are always in a quick pace and have a lot of pressure. I think the living style of Kentucky people is healthier than ours. With such an experience, I think that I should be more conscious about our quality of life.

During the Easter holiday, from 11th April to 20th I represented my school to go to the United States with other eleven classmates and two teachers. It was the most unique and wonderful trip in my life, indeed. It influenced me so much. We experienced a lot- the first thrilling one was being stuck at the airport because of the missing connecting flight.

We stayed at our host family's home and joined their activities together. We also followed our host sisters and brothers to go to school for a few days. We experienced different styles of schooling between _Hong Kong's and Kentucky's. Although we met some obstacles of experiencing the cultures during the trip, the teachers and host family were really attentive and patient to help us solve the problems. I was so delighted that I could overcome the problems with their help and guidance! Honey and I were staying at the same host family together. Our host mother brought us to different spots and enjoyed some traditional food!

We were reluctant and unwilling to leave Kentucky because we had countless memories there. It was so great to meet them and be friends with them. We will still keep in touch with our friends and host families in Kentucky.

This awesome journey is forever irreplaceable and it has its own significance to me. These ten days means so much to me. Overall, the trip was extraordinary!
